

WEBINARS ON
AFRICAN SWINE FEVER (ASF): ASF PREPAREDNESS
Active and Passive Surveillance

Date: March 19

Time: 09:30 to 11:30 [Central America]

Objective: To raise awareness and train stakeholders through examples of good practices in passive and active surveillance under surveillance plans for the prevention and detection of African Swine Fever and other transboundary diseases.

Target audience: ministers of agriculture and livestock; government veterinary services; private veterinarians; associations of pig producers and breeders (and the entire livestock sector); veterinary associations.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Time	Topic	Expert
09:30 – 09:40	Opening remarks
09:40 – 10:10	Active and passive surveillance, good practices in ASF and other pig diseases	Dr. Jose Manuel Sánchez Vizcaíno
10:10 – 10:40	Experience with active surveillance in Brazil	Dr. Alessandra De Lacerda Alves
10:40 – 11:10	Experience with passive surveillance in Puerto Rico	Dr. Fred Soltero
11:10 – 11:30	Questions and comments
11:30 – 11:40	Closing remarks	